around. But both claim that the sun shines just as bright and life can be enjoyed as well as in any place they have visited.

It was with much regret that the many friends of Walter Lacey, one of the model young men of this community, bid him a fond "Adieu" last week on his departure for Dayton, Ohio, where he has gone in search of more remunerative employment. May he succeed beyond his expectations is the wish of all.

Dr. W. G. Lockhart arrived in Hazel Green on schedule time and has been kept busy "looking down in the mouth" since he got here. But that's his business if you want your test put into good shape.

J. B. Clacke, of Frenchburg, accompanied Dr. Lockhart to our little city Sunday and returned home Monday.

J. H. Tandy, of Houston, Texas has been here for the past week or ten days making topographical maps of the oil districts in this section, showing their location, depth, capacity, etc.

Otis Linkous, of Stillwater, came over to mill Tuesday and found time while here to remind the people he wants to be our next As

SAMMIE WALTER,

HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Hazel Green put on metropolitan airs Wednesday when two autos passed through her streets bound from Lexington to Jackson. How they got over the good (?) roads of this section is beyond our comprehension.

F. N. Day has been away from his duties at the J. Taylor Day store for nearly two weeks suffering from an attack of la grippe and other ailments. His many friends hope to see his genial smile behind the counter at an early day.

A. G. Barbelay of Knoxville, Tenn., a commercial tourist, was interviewing the merchants of this section during the past few days.

J. M. Teater is in our city today looking after legal affairs and other business interests.

The business man who advertises only when trade is brisk is close kin to the fellow who prays for rain during a deluge.

Lost—Saturday, April 21, on the road between Hazel Green and the Sample oil wells, a check book from a Tulsa, Okla., bank. Return to Day House. J. H. Tandy.

ACADEMY NOTES.

Wednesday night, Apr. 18, Rev. Faine, of Indianapolis, fieldworker of the Christian Woman's Board of Mission, came to Hazel Green to pay a visit to the school and students. On Thursday morning he made an inspiring chapel talk and the rest of the day he spent with Mr. McGarvey in conferences. On Thursday evening he met with the members of the faculty in the apartment of Prof. McGarvey and gave informal talks on topics of interest. We were sorry he was forced to leave on Friday morning. It is not often we have visitors from headquarters and we are reluctant to give them up.

On Saturday the Academy Baseball team went to Campton and played the latter on their home field. The game was a good one altho the H. G. A. boys proved themselves far superior, by winning with a score of 10-5. The game was played with two old balls. The new ones were left behind and as these balls soon went to pieces it was hard for the pitchers to handle and use any curves. It is hoped that a game with Ezol will follow this one and both of these teams will return the games soon.

A good ball schedule is being made and it is hoped local patronage will be good. This backing is almost essential to a good team.

Mrs. H. A. Slater and Jennie Osborne accompanied the ball team to Campton Saturday.

There was a social given on the hill Saturday night for the students. A number of town students were here and it is hoped others will come. This social was the first since the measles epidemic and was a thoroughly enjoyable one in every respect.

Nancy Tyler went home Saturday to spend the week end with her parents.

Warren Philips spent Sunday with his mother.

Chas. Combs went to his home in Hollonville, Saturday night to see his brother K. Ily Combs, National Guard Officer.

Misses Colegrove, Rosetta Little and Madge Cooper were to be the guests of Arlie Mann, for the week end, at the home of the latter but were prevented by the illness of a near relative of the latter. The party has been postponed a week.

The eyes of Hazel Green have probably seen the flag flying from the top of the school. This is placed there in compliance with the National request for a show of patriotism. All those who were present at the Christian Church Sunday no doubt were inspired by the fine talk made by Bro. McGarvey and will go home and get out the flag and if they don't own one will buy or borrow one. He will fly it to show Hazel Green spirit.

The Embroidery Club met Monday at the home of Mrs. Perry Swango and a lovely evening was enjoyed. After an hour of work and conversation delightful refreshments were served.

Mr. Clyde Haney from Lee City was a visitor at the Academy Saturday and Sunday.
